

You are cordially invited to attend the intrface europe international conference

Building museum-school partnerships and learning experiences across European borders

The results of the intrface europe project will be presented

- A European methodology for working in national and transnational museum-school partnerships
- A best-practice manual containing coursework for students
- Follow-up research on partnership collaboration

9:00 a.m. - 5:30 p.m., October 9, 2017, at Aarhus Katedralskole, Aarhus, Denmark, followed by dinner

We are happy to announce that the keynote speaker will be Dr. Theano Moussouri, Museum Studies, University College London. Dr. Moussouri is one of the architects of the Generic Learning Outcomes.

Speaking at the Multiplier Event will be university researchers associated with the project and representatives from its Irish, Italian and Danish partners. Students will present posters and there will be a practical workshop during the day.

This event is interesting and relevant for students of museum studies and of education, teachers, museum professionals, researchers and municipal and national policy-makers in education and culture.

intrface europe is a project within the Erasmus+ programme and Key Action Area “Cooperation for innovation and the exchange of good practices” under the Action Type “Strategic partnerships for school education.”
